The Los Angeles Times: The story of the legendary Neil Diamond comes to life on stage in an uplifting new Broadway musical, A BEAUTIFUL NOISE: THE NEIL DIAMOND MUSICAL, featuring all his hit songs including "Sweet Caroline," "America," and "Cracklin' Rosie."

The grandson of Jewish and Polish immigrants, Brooklyn born and raised, Neil Diamond was a New York kid down to his boots, strumming his guitar on the steps of Erasmus High School on Flatbush Avenue. 1960s America was hungry for change and so was he. He landed a gig selling songs for fifty bucks a week in the legendary Tin Pan Alley's Brill Building. At night he honed his voice on stage at the Village's Bitter End, but knew he was destined for something greater.

You will arrive at the Providence Place Mall at about 10:15 am and will have an hour and a half on your own to enjoy an ice cream cone or a cup of coffee and a pretzel maybe at The Cheesecake Factory or Panera Bread. Then, you will board the bus to the Performing Arts Center.
